"Who Do You Think You Are Anyway?"

Understanding Yourself and Others

Presented by
Darlene Ann Helstrom

Darlene is co-founder of Purpose Centered Coaching & Training, where she is a Speaker, Trainer and Coach. She along with her husband has been featured in magazines, newspapers and has had the privilege of being invited to speak on various radio talk shows in California. In her previous career she had over 20 years working for and with top executives in various industries. Darlene had built a diverse background in corporate America starting with her position as Receptionist working her way to being the Executive Assistant to four Presidents of Schlumberger. Join us for an evening of learning personality traits and how to get along with everyone you encounter.
